→→ 7.7 km

Start- and endpoint
Bergstraat 1A, 6174RN,
Beekdaelen, Limburg

Level of difficulty
Gemiddeld

The Limburg hills begin in this area. And what hills! The Danikerberg route takes you along steep forest paths with surprising views to orchards with a unique plum variety.

A heritage-listed restaurant that housed the medieval Little Commandery of the Teutonic Knights, next to a mountain where, according to legend, gallows for the goat riders once stood. Modern care for nature and cultural landscape allow you to enjoy this ancient and unique area.

Download the route description and the yellow (ring) poles and markings will help you on your way. You can park at the Biesenhof in Geleen. A cup of coffee is available at gasterie de Bokkereyer or de Biesenhof itself.
